About BAKU

Located on the shores of the Caspian Sea, Baku is a captivating blend of ancient heritage and futuristic design. As the cultural and economic heart of Azerbaijan, it offers a unique fusion of Eastern charm and modern sophistication

📌 Key Highlights:

- Old City: A beautiful old town with narrow streets and the famous Maiden Tower.
- Flame Towers: Tall buildings that glow at night and shape the city's skyline.
- Baku Boulevard: A long seaside walkway great for relaxing and enjoying the view.
- Heydar Aliyev Center: A stunning modern building known for its smooth, curved design.
- Gobustan: A historic area with old rock drawings and bubbling mud volcanoes.

From the charm of its ancient streets to the elegance of its modern landmarks, Baku is a vibrant city where history meets innovation—a destination full of surprises and unforgettable experiences! ✨

TERMS & CONDITION

1. The travel package schedule is based on estimated times and may be subject to change. The company will not be responsible for delays caused by technical issues, weather conditions, or unforeseen circumstances.
2. Travel itineraries are designed as per the available schedule. Any modifications due to operational reasons will not be the responsibility of the company.
3. The company is responsible for arranging travel and accommodation as per the agreed package. Any disruptions due to external factors (e.g., government regulations, airline policies, or natural calamities) will not be the responsibility of the company, and no refunds or alternative compensation will be provided.
4. Travel arrangements are subject to changes based on decisions made by local authorities, airlines, or other relevant institutions. The company is not responsible for any schedule changes made by these entities.
5. If there are unexpected delays in flights, hotel check-ins, or other travel services, the company will not be responsible for any inconvenience caused.
6. In case of flight cancellations or travel restrictions, leading to changes in accommodation or itinerary, the company will not be responsible for any financial or operational losses.
7. Any government policy changes affecting travel services must be adhered to. The company will not be liable for any inconvenience caused due to new regulations.
8. Passengers must obtain all necessary travel approvals or No Objection Certificates (NOC) if required by any government authority.
9. A non-refundable service fee of 1,000 (or as per package details) will be applicable per traveler.
10. If there are any currency exchange rate fluctuations, the final cost of the package will be adjusted based on the prevailing rates at the time of payment.
11. Any modifications to travel bookings due to operational or logistical reasons will be communicated to customers in advance. However, the company will not be responsible for any additional costs that may arise.
12. Refund requests, if applicable, will be processed after deductions based on company policies. The refund amount may vary depending on the circumstances.
13. All travelers must comply with the travel laws and regulations of the destination country. The company will not be responsible for any legal consequences if a traveler violates local laws.
14. In case of unforeseen circumstances (e.g., natural disasters, border closures, or health emergencies), the travel schedule may be affected, and the company will not be responsible for any delays or cancellations.
15. Customers must fully understand and accept these terms before booking. Any disputes regarding these conditions will not be entertained after confirmation.
16. The company reserves the right to modify or update these terms and conditions at any time. Customers are advised to stay informed about any policy changes.
